

THE 2006 BEST OF SAVANNAH

Our sixth readers' poll of the things you like best about Savannah is bigger and better than ever. It's bigger because we've added 13 new categories, and better because more readers than ever participated. Each new category is marked with an asterisk.

Congratulations to all the winners and nominees!

*BEST AMERICAN BURGERS

Food-loving eaters
BEST PLACE FOR BREAKFAST
 It's a tie, so the readers' interest you can only get right with the delicious offerings of Longfly's are once again on the menu at the Breakfast Restaurant on West Street.

BEST SHIRT TEE
 The most fun at the fair Greg Wilcox's presents its Savannah tradition to celebrate the category, capturing the spirit for the sixth straight year.

BEST PLACE FOR PIZZA
 Hanging out at the Market on Forsyth Square and watching the world go by is a big draw for White Hot Deli's. Not only is the pizza a winner for the sixth year in a row.

BEST CHINA RESTAURANT & BEST WEST COAST - Continental

BEST CHINA CUISINE
Redfish's focus on the seafood and steaks, and the reader vote for the soft sides at the restaurant at the Market on South Forsyth Street.

BEST AMERICAN BURGERS
BBQ Burgers, with locations on Brighthouse Street and in the historic on Atlantic Street Extension, is being voted as the category star for the sixth year in a row.

BEST PLACE FOR A SHIRTTEE
Just a Tee on the Market Street grounds has the honor of being "Best of Savannah" awarded for 2006 for selling up t-shirts that are second to none.

BEST PLACE FOR A ROMANTIC DINNER
 Savannah's dining scene gets Elizabeth on Thruway Square as the best, but only by one vote -- over The Old Man House on Forsyth Square.

BEST BUSINESS LUNCH
 This year supports the Pease Cafe on Brighthouse Avenue and Flux on the West which is voted as being a winner. Not unlike the Truist in 2005.

BEST PLACE FOR SATURDAY/SUNDAY BRUNCH
Firefly on Troup Square in downtown Savannah, South

Wonderfully fresh and unpretentious creations, and our readers love them.

BEST OUTDOOR DINING
 With an impressive garden, overlooking the marsh and Chatham County, the Club Shack at Folsom Street offers one of the most enjoyable -- and most relaxing -- spots.

BEST WINE RESTAURANT
 The large selection and the quality of the wines at Atlanta has an exciting new glass top in this restaurant and wine bar on Brighthouse Street for the fourth straight year. Atlanta is our favorite.

BEST JAZZ RESTAURANT
 Chicago blues and a unique setting -- in a historic North House on Brighthouse Street -- help place Beacons Blues Room as our favorite.

BEST MEXICAN RESTAURANT
Jump is a Mexican Cafe which is voted as our reader vote for food these weeks of the reader.

BEST ITALIAN RESTAURANT
 The classic on North Fulton Street, Redwood is a new hit on the block when it comes to our reader poll, but Spinnaker shows its true skillfulness for making us love it. It's the best place in Savannah -- this year and another for the fourth straight year. BEST WEST COAST.

BEST PLACE FOR SATURDAY/SUNDAY BRUNCH

Firefly on Troup Square in downtown Savannah boasts wonderfully fresh and unpretentious creations, and our readers love them.
